"though she be but little she is fierce"

- William Shakespeare

It is incredibly difficult to explain Aislen, but we feel this quote by Shakespeare is fitting. She was a larger than life character, if not exactly in stature, that is. She was a spitfire, someone who wasn't afraid to tell you her unabridged thoughts and feelings. Aislen wasn't afraid to voice her opinions, regardless of whether or not they were orthodox, or didn't exactly agree with the ideas of others. Despite her ailments, she often refused to be treated as such. Within our shop, she was independent. If she wasn't tall enough, she would get a stool. If she still wasn't tall enough, she would get a bigger stool. And if she still wasn't tall enough, she would begrudgingly accept help. In summary, Aislen was someone who was influential to every person she met, even if she just spoke to you for a brief moment in time. You would instantly know just how wonderful, inspiring and intelligent she was. Her influence will be with us forever, and she will remain in our memories for the rest of our lives.

Congratulations

Bay Path's School Committee presented drafting senior Erik Fuhrmann with the U.S. Presidential Scholar award for his overall performance throughout his high school career.

The U.S. Presidential Scholars Program recognizes some of the nation's most distinguished graduating high school seniors. This includes their SAT scores, GPA, classroom performance and their involvement with extra-curricular activities.

Special Thanks

Mrs. Corbett and Ms. Piehl

We appreciate everything you have done for us over the past four years. We have enjoyed ourselves because of your support and care. Thank you so much for everything you have done to make our high school careers memorable.

You have made our Bay Path experience the best with all you have done for us as we went through our four years. Thank you for making our senior year perfect and most memorable with prom and graduation.

Everything that has happened in the last four years has been extremely special and we will never forget it. We appreciate all you've done for us. So we thank you for making Bay Path an important lifelong memory.

Thank you for the encouragement, kindness, and patience throughout our High School career. You were a reliable source of comfort and inspiration.

CLASS OF 2017

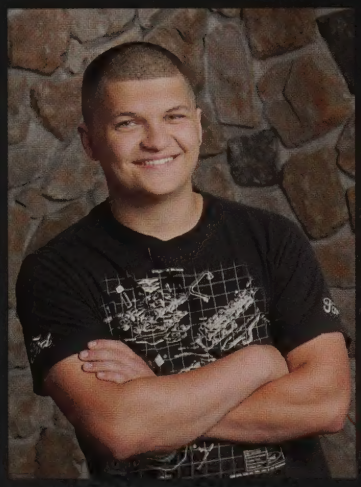

Statement from Officers

As a chapter in our lives comes to a close and another begins anew, we will never forget those who have contributed to our stories along the way. Yesterday we were strangers, today we are friends, and the future is still ours to compose.

"though she be but little she is fierce"

- William Shakespeare

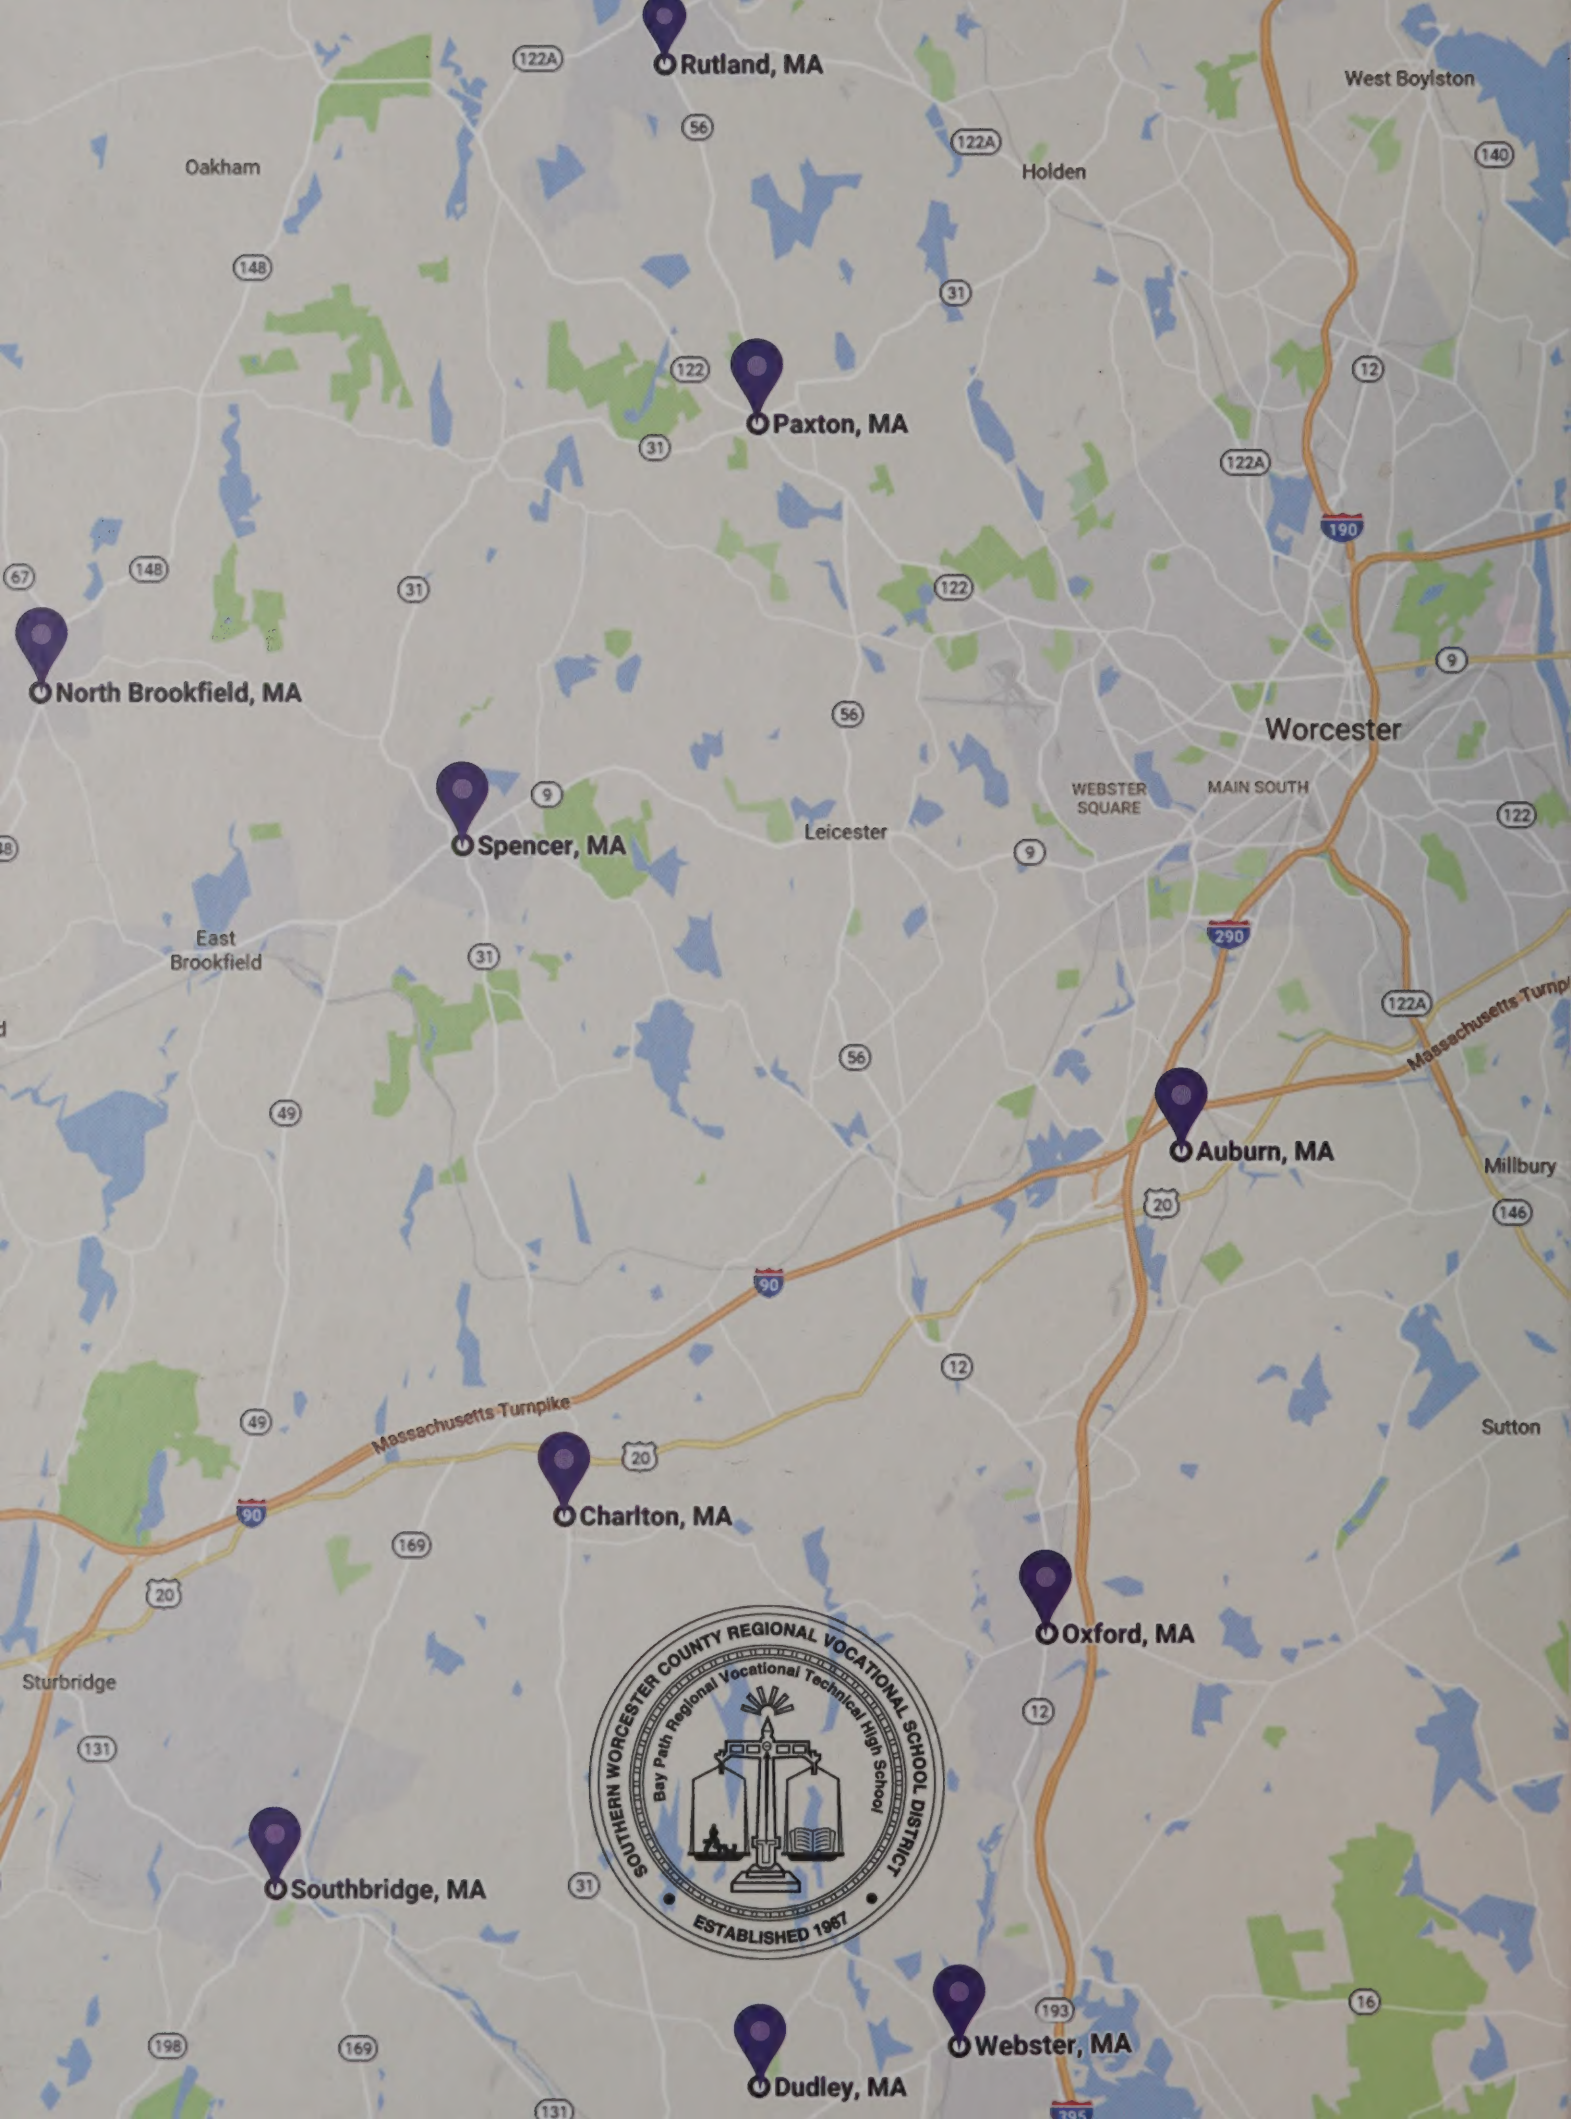

It is incredibly difficult to explain Aislen, but we feel this quote by Shakespeare is fitting. She was a larger than life character, if not exactly in stature, that is. She was a spitfire, someone who wasn't afraid to tell you her unabridged thoughts and feelings. Aislen wasn't afraid to voice her opinions, regardless of whether or not they were orthodox, or didn't exactly agree with the ideas of others. Despite her ailments, she often refused to be treated as such. Within our shop, she was independent. If she wasn't tall enough, she would get a stool. If she still wasn't tall enough, she would get a bigger stool. And if she still wasn't tall enough, she would begrudgingly accept help. In summary, Aislen was someone who was influential to every person she met, even if she just spoke to you for a brief moment in time. You would instantly know just how wonderful, inspiring and intelligent she was. Her influence will be with us forever, and she will remain in our memories for the rest of our lives.
